GOLF ENTERTAINER JOSH OLSON HAS BANNER YEAR IN 2009

GREENVILLE, SC: Golf Entertainer and President of Drive the Distance Golf, Josh Olson, has flown over 230,000 miles this year to entertain both golfers and non-golfers alike with his amazing power drives and trick shot skills. Olson also added an executive director to his team and launched two new websites to support the growth of his organization.

Through Drive the Distance Golf, Josh Olson offers Power & Trick Shot Shows at golf events around the world. His 2009 travels have taken him from Montana to the Ukraine for clients ranging from Mercedes-Benz to the Tulsa Dream Center. Olson performed in multiple events in 10 US states and internationally in Dubai, Russia, China, twice in Hong Kong and five times in the Ukraine.

“Making a difference in people’s outlook on life makes all the time spent in airports worthwhile,” says Olson. “If I can get them laughing and having a good time at an event, then I have succeeded.”

During a Power & Trick Shot Show, audiences are amazed to see Josh hit a putter over 250 yards, swing a driver that is over 9 feet long, pop a golf ball out of his mouth and drive it 275 yards, and hit a ball 200 miles per hour through a piece of plywood. Finally, Josh goes for extreme distance when he uses his 145 mph club-head speed to blast drives over 400 yards and even the unthinkable 500 yards.

In addition to golf shows, Drive The Distance Golf offers a variety of programs including VIP outings, golf clinics, fundraisers, speaking and indoor events, retreats and more.
